This Guide is one of a series of finding aids describing the declassified seized German records deposited in the National Archives. The series was initiated by the Microfilming Project of the Committee for the Study of War Documents of the American Historical Association in cooperation with the National Archives and the Department of the Army. With the termination of the Microfilming Project in July 1963, the National Archives assumed sole responsibility for the reproduction of records and the preparation of Guides.

This is one of a number of Guides describing the records of the German Army field commands. These records fall into five categories: Records of Army Groups, Records of Armies, Records of Corps, Records of Divisions, and Occupational and Other Records.

This Guide, which constitutes Part I of records of the panzer armies, describes the contents of 227 rolls of microfilm reproducing the records of Panzer Armies 1 and 2. Included is material on the campaigns in the West in 1940, in the Balkans in 1941, and in Russia in 1941-45. Part II will cover the records of Panzer Armies 3 - 5 and Africa.

The provenance to which the documents are attributed is the army headquarters that originally kept the file, although a large proportion of the items had in fact been retired by the units to the Heeresarchiv Potsdam for permanent retention. There an accession number was stamped or written on the cover, and it is by this numbering system that the folders were organized in the World War II Records Division and its predecessor, the Departmental Records Branch of the Department of the Army, which offices administered the records prior to the assumption of these duties by the Archival Projects Division, Office of Military Archives. All folders accessioned by the Heeresarchiv were assigned numbers in sequence and logged in by unit in the so-called Potsdam Catalog. All such folders bear numbers below 75000. Folders that had not gone through the Heeresarchiv accessioning process before capture or had never been retired to the Heeresarchiv were given folder numbers in an extension of the Heeresarchiv system using numbers above 75000, but otherwise following the Potsdam pattern. Considerable information on the fate of all German military records during World War II, and especially on several fires with subsequent efforts to reconstruct the files, may be found in the records of the Chef des Heeresarchivs in the German Army High Command. (These records were filmed in T-78, Rolls 1-38, and are described in Guide No. 12 of this series.)

The descriptive material for the panzer armies was prepared on cards and each card has been filmed before the folder it describes. The cards for all folders on one roll of film are also filmed at the beginning of that roll. This Guide contains the text of the cards.

A short unit history and an organization index by staff section (Abteilung) precede the file item listing for each panzer army. The unit history has also been filmed at the beginning of each roll of the unit's records.

The term "Roll" in the Guide refers to the sequence of the film. "1st Frame" gives the frame number of the first page of the folder. The "Item No." is the identification symbol on the original folder. The "Item" provides (a) the abbreviation of the staff section that originated the document, and (b) the title appearing on the document cover or other information providing a general idea of the contents of the item.

The original records have been returned to the Federal Republic of Germany. The Microfilm has been deposited as Microcopy T-313 with the Exhibits and Publications Division of the National Archives, Washington, D.C. 20408. The microfilm may be consulted in the National Archives or copies may be ordered. A price list will be found at the end of the Guide.

Donald E. Spencer served at Editor of the Guide. The descriptions were prepared by Ignaz Ernst and Petronilla Hawes. Ruth Pantel and Petronilla Hawes prepared the organization indexes and typed the stencils.

Panzer-Armeeoberkommando 1 (First Panzer Army)

The first predecessor of the First Panzer Army, the XXII Army Corps (XXII. Armeekorps),* was formed in the summer of 1939 and took part in the campaign in Poland. In March 1940 it was redesignated Panzer Group Kleist (Panzergruppe Kleist) for its commander, General Ewald von Kleist, and fought in the campaign in the West. It was subsequently engaged in the Balkan campaign and was renamed Panzer Group 1 (Panzergruppe 1) in June 1941. From the Balkans it was committed to the southern sector of the eastern front and in October 1941 was renamed First Panzer Army (Panzer-AOK 1). Early in 1944 it moved from the lower Dnieper bend to the northern Ukraine. It subsequently withdrew through the Ukraine to southern Poland and the Slovakian sector. It was disbanded on May 8, 1945. Commanders after von Kleist was relieved on November 21, 1942, were Generals Eberhad von Mackensen, Hans Hube, Erhard Raus, Gotthard Heinrici, and Walter Nehring.

Panzer-Armeeoberkommando 2 (Second Panzer Army)

The predecessor of the Second Panzer Army, the XIX Motorized Corps (XIX. Armeekorps /mot./), was formed in May 1939, and took part as such in the Polish campaign. It fought in the West as Panzer Group Guderian (Panzergruppe Guderian), and in early May 1941, it was designated Panzer Group 2 (Panzergruppe 2). It fought as Panzer Group 2 in the early stages of the campaign on the eastern front. From July 28 to August 3, 1941, it was known as Army Group Guderian (Armeegruppe Guderian). On October 5, 1941, it became the Second Panzer Army (Panzer-AOK 2). It continued to operate on the central sector of the eastern front until the middle of August 1943, when it was transferred to the Balkans for anti-guerilla operations. It was engaged in the Brod area in eastern Croatia in December 1944, and subsequently against the Soviets in southern Hungary. Commanders of the Army from May 1941 until its disbandment in May 1945 were Generals Heinz Guderian, Rudolf Schmidt, Walter Model, Lothar Rendulic, Franz Böhme, and Maximilian de Angelis.
